Reconstitution of Central Advisory Board on Culture
Gopalakrishnan Shri R.;Sathyabama Smt. V.

Will the Minister of CULTURE be pleased to state:

a) whether the Government has recently reconstituted and revamped the Central Advisory Board on Culture (CABC) and Central Advisory Board on Archaeology (CABA);

b) if so, the details thereof along with its constitution and terms of reference;

c) whether the Committee has been assigned with any special tasks to identify new plans and to guide the works of various schemes/ missions under the Ministry; and

d) if so, the details thereof and the targets set for achieving the mission?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE (IC) CULTURE AND TOURISM
(DR. MAHESH SHARMA)

a) Yes, Madam. CABC has been reconstituted on 25.10.2016. CABA was last reconstituted on 17th February,2014.

(b) (i) The details and terms for constitution of CABC are at Annexure- I.

(ii) The details and terms for constitution of CABA are at Annexure- II.

(c & d)- Yes, Madam.

Central Advisory Board on Culture (CABC) has been constituted to advise the Ministry of Culture at the policy level to evolve programmes which would focus attention on the creativity at different levels of Indian society, and in different regions, which hitherto has been either neglected or not sustained through the existing institutional mechanisms.
Central Advisory Board on Archaeology (CABA) is constituted with a view to promote closer contacts of the Archaeological Survey of India with Indian Universities conducted Archaeological Researches and other Institutions carrying out studies related to application of archaeological principles, training future archaeologists and providing for closer association of learned societies in India and of the State Government with the activities of the Archaeological Survey of India.
Works assigned to both the Boards are continuous in nature. Therefore, no target can be set.
